Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Hear Ye!!
THE subscriber having taken the agency for the sale of Burdict and Bartlett's Grecian Caoutchoug Oil Polish, is now prepared to furnish the article to store keepers at Manufacturer's prices.
This article is composed of neats foot oil and Gutta Percha, acting as a preserver of leather as well as polish. An article of this kind has long been needed, as every one knows that common blacking will not polish or oil over grease.
The attention of livery stable keepers, and those keeping carriages and harnesses, is invited to this article, as it is unsurpassed for the purpose of cleaning carriage tops, harnesses, &c. It is put up in large size boxes, convenient for the use of livery stable keepers, and also smaller sizes for the use of everybody who wish to purchase the best blacking in the market.

The copy prepared for engraving, is now ready for inspection and corrections, as it is my wish to make it much nearer a correct map than any yet issued.

LADIES' DELIGHT!
RELIEF COME AT LAST.
J. WISNER'S Washing Machine, Patented Sept. 26th, 1854, is a large tub with zinc fitted on the bottom, also on the under side of the rubber. It stands on a stool, and weighs about 25 lbs; is simple and handy and has been thoroughly examined and tried by thousands at the West within the past year, who pronounce it to be the best labor saver ever offered to the public. It has been tested sufficiently long to prove that whenever it has been used properly, it will tell a better story for itself than I can communicate. Give it a trial, and you will be entirely satisfied of its superior merit.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS
(Late Agent of U S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST.,
BOSTON.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON," Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,"
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."
From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MISCELLANY.

THE CONVENT BRIDE.

BY E. ALMY.

[CONCLUDED.]

It was an ugly affair. I had much rather my secretary had confined himself to his own profession. What right had he to interfere between man and wife, making a disturbance when we never had had the least difficulty?—it was an unpardonable offence.

I did wish heartily I had been introduced to Mrs. Mortimer at least during our honeymoon, it was so awkward, staring at ones wife for the first time, and then not being positive whether it was indeed the person you married or the chamber maid.

How would she receive me? blushing like a peony, chiding me for neglect? or with tones of gentle entreaty? or would she frown and banish me altogether? I hoped so; indeed I did; then I should glory in single blessedness forever, with no earth love between the spirit of my immortal friend. Now, more than ever did I condemn hasty marriages—yet this, was it not Clide's dying wish? I bowed my spirit to his will and tried to seem a married man.

I dreaded an interview with Mrs. Mortimer. If I could have escaped with honor, I should now have been with you. It was nearly sunset when I ascended the stairs leading to her apartments, guided by the secretary, I think I looked like a person going to execution; I felt so at least, yet I hadn't a doubt but what I should join you on the morrow, and this would be my farewell to Mrs. Mortimer.

I think my heart palpitated audibly as I was bowed into my lady's room, and left alone with the rather loud introduction of "Mr. Mortimer, Mrs. Mortimer, your husband, madam, your wife sir." What a farce. Good heavens! Could Mrs. Mortimer be lame or foolish? she did not rise to meet me, but sat motionless behind the window curtain, with only her skirts and feet visible. I thought her feet delicate, and should have liked a peep at her face, but that she was careful to conceal, and I was far too haughty to ask a woman the privilege of gazing at her, even though she were my wife. If Mrs. Mortimer was a fool so much the better. If she had no manners I should not be her instructor; so I began to converse incog. Politely begging her pardon for intruding, I stated my reasons, and inquired if I could serve her in any respect before leaving. Mrs. Mortimer made no reply, so I proceeded to express my regret that a hasty union had placed her perhaps in an unhappy condition, then, out of the great generosity of my heart I dilated on her entire freedom, giving her all the privileges of a maiden, disclaiming all right to restrain her action, and begging she would be as happy as possible. Ah, Pierre, I felt myself a noble fellow just then, for setting such an example for husbands! My wife should have her own will. No voice said yea or nay, but the curtain trembled and I thought I heard a faint sob. Being in no mood for a scene and justified in my proceedings by the stupidity of Mrs. Mortimer, I prepared for my exit, bidding the pretty feet good night in a gentle, manly manner, closing the door of her apartment softly behind me. And now that my first marriage duty was performed, and I was safe in my bachelor hall again, I was ready to depart on the morrow, congratulating myself that no opposition was raised.

But Pierre, my dear fellow, did your conscience ever rise up suddenly, as you were about eating your supper, perhaps tossing your soul on mountain billows, until you fell prostrate, dizzy and sick with conviction, strong as heaven's light, that you were guilty of a base act, perpetrated against some one, perhaps a dear friend, dead or living it matters not, if the spirit rises like a reproaching ghost? So to me came the noble spirit of my friend, filling my soul with anguish, causing me to rise hastily from my evening repast, and sending me in deep humiliation to meditation in solitude.

I sat bowed in sorrow in the library of Clide, while his ample spirit filled the room. I had wronged my friend, neglected his only charge. Was it for this he had given me his wealth that I selfishly enjoyed, while the rightful heir wept alone in misery? I knew it was a sob I heard; she too wept for Clide. How my stoical indifference must have sounded in her ears! and I the pretended friend of her uncle's! and I to treat her thus and then abandon her? She was young, timid, reared in a convent, what did she know of the manners of the world? No wonder she hid herself and wept. Poor child! I must have seemed like a wild beast to her! —How roughly I harangued her as if she had been the most designing woman. No wonder she did not speak, I insulted the woman's nature. God forgive me I am not fit for companionship, so long have I nursed this selfish feeling.

The moon filled the room with a sad pale light, and I knew the spirit of Clide was there in judgment over me. In my love for him I had abused the pledge of his love for me; how could I regain his favor? Tears of contrition rained down my cheeks, and when I cried "O, my friend, light of my soul, smile upon the selfish clay of thy friend, and let his spirit again hold sweet converse with thine," I heard a sigh which I almost believed was the spirit of Clide in answer. I sat breathless with my face toward the window, almost expecting to see his shadow pass one moment of suspense, followed by another sigh so mournful that I was startled, I arose quickly and turned to the spot whence the sound proceeded, and came in contact with a figure closely veiled. I uttered an exclamation, and stretched out my hand to see if it were tangible. Without a sound it retreated toward the door as if to elude me. I sprang forward and gently seized the figure, which proved flesh by the touch. Again that same heart-breaking sob sounded behind the veil, and so violently trembled the former that the floor appeared to quiver beneath my feet. "Speak to me," I said, and drew her closer, for I knew it was my wife. Then she broke forth in the most uncontrolable grief, throwing herself on the sofa, and burying her face in the pillow.

Like a penitent husband as I was, forgetting all my own selfish anticipations, I knelt by her side and implored forgiveness, alleging my deep grief as the cause of my neglect to her and of my departure. Good heavens? was Mrs. Mortimer dumb or obstinate! Not a word could I obtain; though I entreated her to speak to me, her sobs only increased; how I came in possession of her hand, I know not, but the soft delicate touch thrilled my pulse. By the pale moonlight I saw the ring of Clide upon her finger. It was our welding ring. I remember how I hurriedly placed it there on that fearful night, and forgot it as soon. I pressed the ring to my lips, and the hand, until it grew cold beneath my burning kiss. The trembling form was still. O how light and perfect was that childish form as I lifted it in my arms and bore it to the open window. I pressed her head to my throbbing heart, and kissed the sacred veil before lifting it from her face. But suspense was growing torture, I removed the veil between us. Pierre, did you ever see a perfect angel? No; of course you never did—you never saw my wife. It is only in her you can behold seraphic beauty. I sank in the window seat weaker than a child, weeping over the very loveliness I gazed upon so tenderly.

This then was the angel that I had scorned. Never had I seen features so perfect, complexion of such purity. I did not call her back to life, I only gazed enraptured. Luxuriant dark curls fell over her polished brow and neck below her waist, long lashes fringed her lids, and every feature was perfect as a star, and they were Clide's—the same classic mould, softened and refined to the most delicate formation. Her parted lips revealed the most perfect gems. The cool evening air brought her to life again. She opened her eyes with a start; I kissed her again and again calling her the spirit of Clide; her silent tears bathed my cheek. Then I won her name, and drew from her an opinion of my ungracious self. She did not blame me only she was glad I loved her at last. Ina sealed my forgiveness with a kiss,—and so the Eastern tour proved but a bachelor's dream. You may be sure I thanked the secretary very sincerely for the lesson he gave me, and rewarded him by taking Mrs. Mortimer wholly to myself.—Though reared in a convent she is the most charming and delightful companion, wise as Minerva, beautiful as Venus. But my dear fellow I am giving you a tremendous letter. I close with this advice; if ever you marry, be sure you have as early an introduction to your wife as possible, especially if she is a convent bride.

The Chicago Journal says that Father Chiniquy, and two-thirds of his Kankakee congregation, have joined the Presbyterian church. The remainder of his congregation will join the Baptist persuasion.

THURSDAY MORNING, FEB. 2, 1860.

Money.

In a country like this the people govern, they are immaculate: their sentiments rule as well socially as politically, and it is sacrilege to question their supreme privilege of setteling all the private interests of individuals and institutions. This being the case it is preposterous for any private individual to assert his personal rights in regard to any particular, whatever, when the public mind has been prejudiced in respect to those private opinions or sentiments held by the unfortunate party alluded too; consequently the only redress for such persons is to change if possible the public mind, and through this means they may perhaps accomplish the much desired object.

Although the opinion of the people rules, it does not always follow that it is invariably correct, on the contary we frequently see individuals whose ruin has been brought about designedly by individuals who have used this powerful weapon for the accomplishment of their own base designs upon those who were personally opposed to them. In no part of the world, in our opinion, is his means resorted to with as little provocation by evil minded men and women as in the old city of Newport. But we are altogether on the wrong track, for we intended to say something about money. Money is considered a necessary evil, and our own experience proves the necessary part of it to be more truth than poetry, yet the public generally concur that money is unnecessary to the printer, the publisher, or the editor. These men think they do not need money, what use do they have for it, their tables are always supplied by the bounties of the "puff" loving denizens, and what use pray, have they for money? My bill is so small says a wealthy old gentleman when his yearly subscription comes due the editor never would feel it, and he knows "I'm good;" which is said with a particularly self-satisfied air," certainly" says a glass blower, it is insolent for the fellow to refuse to take my little advertising bill out "in trade" what use has he for money he don't have to buy stock, if he sends his bill again I'll stop my paper "I will" and then we'll see which is best * glass shades or nothing.

Do the people know that the white paper (stock) used by printers costs often as much as the paper is sold for when printed. Do they know that printers have wives and babies to provide for, doctors bills to pay and other little trifles of a like character to pay money for. Let us take for example the enviable position usually accorded to the proprietor of a Daily Newspaper, this worthy is always given to understand that as long as he is moderate in his charges and never attempts to collect his bills he will be popular, his papers will sell, his advertisers will increase and so on. Now the worthy man likes the zeal of his patrons and cannot think of "boring" them with bills, for that he knows full well will drive them away and he fears the loss not only of the patronage but the money too, and so he goes on year after year—trust! trust !! trust !!! but his stock, his paper has to be paid for in cash—cash —Yes solid cash in advance. His foreman and his journeymen have little families to support and they must have their weekly supply of cash—the girls and the boys, the devils black and white, and the carriers all want cash, at least once a week. Now this is a pleasent situation is'nt it? Would'nt some of our friends like to be placed in our shoes? Don't, we pray you, all speak at once. Turn it over in your minds friends and our word for it the next ragged little printer's boy who with cap in hand stands trembling before you with a little bit of paper in his hands will rejoice to find that you have learned how to make change much easier than you could a year ago.—Think twice before you bluff the boy off, and calculate the consequence, if every little draft like this should be protested, it will not take you long to perceive that these small drops are required to save the printers teem and control his bank account.

* Note. The publisher of this paper has received in pay for quite a large advertising contract a kind of article for which he has in vain endeavored to find a name. It is of various sizes and shapes, and might answer for pitcher or water-glasses, but unfortunately will neither stand up or lay down, and being made of glass, would of course require washing often, but unfortunately they have paper rims. We shall be glad to turn them into something less transparent, and if our readers have any idea that they can be turned to any imaginable use, will they have the goodness to inform us. They shall be sold cheap for cash.

William D. Bishop of Bridgeport, Ct., has resigned the office of commissioner of patents at Washington, which he has held but a year, and Samuel Ingham of the same state, commissioner of cutoms, is transferred to it.

A school teacher named Carpenter, 61 years old, fell dead in his school house, near Pittsburgh, Pa., last week, while punishing a pupil. The teacher had been exerting himself violently to overcome the boy.

WILL WOOD OF THE FARM.

BY R. W. PEARCE.

The bright Spring days have come, Will Wood,
The cold, bleak weather is past,—
The husbandman speeds his plow once more,
The Frost-King's gone at last.
The fields have cast their mantle of white,
And are donning their carpet of green,
The cattle e'en now, on the hill-side graze,
And the green bursting buds are seen.

My mind's eye wanders to the farm, Will Wood,
The farm with its meadows and trees,
Where in years gone by—bright boyhood's years—
Our hearts were light as the breeze.
The house by the road, where years it has stood,
Unscathed by the hand of decay—
The peach and the pear trees, 'neath whose shade,
We went in the sunshine to play.

The hand that planted them is cold, Will Wood,
And is laid 'neath the white marble stone;
But the trees he left bright monuments stand,
To tell of the patriarch gone.
That old well-sweep you've taken away,
And a "new-fangled" pump, in its stead,
Bring to your band the pure cooling draught
From the well that our good sire made.

And don't you remember the oven, Will Wood,
We built 'neath the buttonwood tree?
And how in that oven the apples we baked,
And none so happy as we?
A score of years have passed since then,
But the oven remains there still,
Though the soft, green moss now covers its sides,
That oven close under the hill.

There is one gentle voice now hushed, Will Wood,
That we all so delighted to hear;
Her form lies cold in the embrace of death,
That was wont the dwelling to cheer;
But her memory lives in the hearts of those
Who joyed in her presence then;
She'll mingle no more with the scenes of earth,
But anon we shall meet her again.

We're scattered all hither and yon, Will Wood,
We ne'er again shall meet,
Around the board in the old farm-house,
With kindly words to greet.
But our hearts cling fondly around that spot,
Where we never knew aught of harm,
And we joy to grasp thy hard, brown hand,
Will Wood of the homestead farm.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Everybody's Topic.

Buried within the annals of the past—the history of the limitless ages of antiquity—is an important record of an eventful day, buried so completely that the date thereof is lost, and the record itself has been only saved from a like untimely end, by the pious assistance and care of tradition. That such a record was made, is evident from the fact that all communities have received the tradition, and the parts all conform one with another in all of the different localities, and among the different peoples.

Tuesday, if we are to believe the record or tradition, was another day made eventful from similar causes. Up to 12 o'clock, M., that was a lovely, springlike day. On the street, in the market, among those who bought and sold, the expressions were constantly uttered, "what a beautiful day," "how spring-like," "winter is wearing out easily," "winter is quietly slipping away," "if the Clerk of the Weather is not mindful of his business, we shall cheat him out of this winter," "how favorable for the poor."

Soon after the sun passed the meridian, a change came over the spirits of these dreamers. The wind blew up from the north, fresh and cold, blowing that "mildness," "spring-like, beautiful, soft weather," into the middle of the Gulf Stream, or some other more favorable locality. The gravel that our City Fathers laid out to be pulverized, in the street, by the job, until it resembles the powdered streets of Eastern countries, suddenly exhibited signs of excitability, and by sunset it was on the greatest "rise" that it has shown for three months, to the great annoyance of the "bears and bulls," particularly of the former, as all in the street had to bear it.

At 9 1-2 o'clock old Boreas brought his largest bellows and pipes to bear, and as if he could not do enough with the dust, he scattered a fine snow-storm down upon us, driving it into every crack and pin-hole where he could possibly effect an entrance. And as "all things" are often said "to conspire together for good," so in this case, the thermometer very unceremoniously fell down to 6 above zero! A neighbor's shop shutters, standing in cross currents of wind, broke loose, and kept up for the rest of the night an original arrangement of the 'Anvil Chorus,' frightening the weak-nerved out of refreshing sleep, and making Wednesday a blue day.

Such a day answers exactly the ancient description, in allusion to which we commenced this article.

U. S. Commissioner's Court.

U. S. vs. John McGennis, defendant, was charged with assault and battery with an iron instrument, and the case came before U. S. Commissioner William Gilpin, Esq., yesterday afternoon. By the courtesy of Judge Gilpin we are enabled to give the following abstract of the testimony:

Cherre testified that when asleep on the night of January 16, in his berth, he was awakened by three blows upon the head. Lamp was out, could not tell who it was that struck him. Saw the person leaving the forecastle. Did not strike McGennis with a knife, Had a knife under pillow when went to bed but never saw it afterwards.

James Kempt, sailor, has heard McGennis threaten many times, that he would kill, [illegible] say that Cherre would not make any more trouble on board. Saw C. come aft, bleeding [illegible] body. Had a marlinspike lying [illegible] with [illegible] found it. Heard McGennis say he would have killed the [illegible] man if he had not run aft. Heard him say it many times.

Capt. Nichols, master, said Cherre came into cabin, bleeding profusely, from wounds made by a blunt instrument, and he dressed the three wounds. Asked McGennis, why he laid upon man so, McG. told him that Cherre struck him with a knife—that he did not strike him with an iron, but with his boot.

George Lathrop,—steward, dressed the head. It was struck in three places, each about one and a quarter inches long, and one inch wide, by a blunt instrument. The scalp was cut to the bone, and bled profusely.

Stephen Gardner, a sailor, was asleep in the forecastle with Cherre, when he was hurt, and was awakened by his cries. There was no third person, who had any business there. Struck a light, and saw a man leaving forecastle.

McGinnis said, he had a quarrel with Cherre, and struck him with his fist, and then kicked him.

After hearing this evidence, the case was adjourned to to-day, at 4 1 2 o'clock, when the decision of Judge Gilpin will be given.

☞ In consequence of the storm Tuesday night, the New York boat and mails did not arrive till 3 o'clock, P. M., and the Golden Gate did not leave for Providence yesterday morning.

☞ We are under obligations to the Hon. Christopher Robinson, member of Congress for the Eastern District of Rhode Island, for the speech of the Hon. John Hickman of Pennsylvania, on "Who have violated Compromises?"

THIRTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.

SENATE.

Mr. Grimes (Rep. Iowa) corrected the statement made the other day by Mr. Toombs, to the effect that Iowa had passed unconstitutional laws.—Mr. Brown's (Dem., Miss.) resolutions relative to the organization of Territories were taken up. Mr. Wilkinson (Rep., Min.) moved an amendment that Territories are the common property of the people; that Congress has power to legislate for the interests of free labor in them; and that a clause be inserted in the bills organizing Territories prohibiting Slavery therein. Mr. Nicholson (Dem., Tenn.) took the floor, and addressed the Senate on the subject of the "Irrepressible Conflict." When he concluded, the subject was postponed till Wednesday; and after an Executive Session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The galleries were overflowed with spectators, and large numbers sought places on the floor of the Chamber. Members finding themselves crowded upon demanded that the floor should be cleared. Quite a number of ladies had taken seats appropriated to the diplomatic corps, and after some discussion, in which it was insisted upon that they should vacate their seats, they left, and the floor was finally cleared. An ineffectual attempt was then made to procure a pair for Mr. C. B. Cochrane (Rep., N. Y.) The House then prepared to vote for Speaker, when Mr. Sherman (Rep., Ohio) rose, and in a few manly remarks, withdrew his name as a candidate. Three votes were than had, the last one standing: For Mr. Pennington (Rep., N. J.), 115; for Mr. Smith (S. Am, N. C.), 113; scattering, 5, Necessary to a choice, 117, Adjourned.

FOUSEL'S PABULUM VITÆ.

THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY, possesses extraordinary properties for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all PULMONARY DISEASES.

This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and its most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs, or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest recommendations and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Invalids in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like import.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery.

This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are efficiently used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,
16 Boylston Street, Boston, Dec. 19, 1857.

TESTIMONIAL from the Assistant Superintendent of Health:

BOSTON, Oct. 5, 1859.

Sir:—It affords me great pleasure in recommending to those troubled with Pulmonary Complaints the use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; and my own experience: as shown that for Coughs and Colds it possesses qualities of great merit, and I would most cheerfully recommend its use to those troubled with the above complaints, so common to our climate.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) DANIEL B. CURTIS,
To F. J. LAFORME. Room 12, City Hall.

F. J. LAFORME, Esq:

Dear Sir—This may certify that I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and I consider it the best article that I have ever used for pulmonary complaints. My wife has used it for several colds, and its effect was magical; and I have no objection to your referring in any way to me that you deem expedient.

I have given the above named a fair trial, and with confidence advise all that are afflicted with colds or pulmonary complaints to try it.

DR. MATTISON'S
REMEDIAL INSTITUTE,
—FOR THE TREATMENT OF—
Special Diseases,
No. 28 Union St., Providence, R. I.

Circulars giving full information with references and testimonials, sent by mail. Also a Pamphlet on Diseases of Women with observations on Private and Chronic Maladies generally, sent free by enclosing a stamp to Dr. H. N. MATTISON as above.

Dr. M. is a thoroughly educated physician of nineteen years practice, giving his whole attention to the diseases named. Persons at a distance, therefore, having any important and difficult case in this specialty will save much time and expense by applying either personally or by letter, to the REMEDIAL INSTITUTE.
N. B.—Accommodations for patients from abroad wishing to remain in the city for a short time under treatment.

A WORD TO INVALIDS.

All who have any serious or troublesome disease will very naturally seek advice somewhere, and this leads me to say a few words on the choice of a physician. And first, let all quacks, impostors and humbugs alone. If you have an intelligent physician in your vicinity apply to him immediately, and follow his directions explicitly, and for a sufficient length of time, and he will probably cure you; if not, then apply to one who makes your disease a specialty, for no physician in general practice, no matter how eminent, can treat a given disease, or class of diseases, as successfully as one of the same ability who makes such diseases a specialty, and devotes his whole attention to them. Educated physicians hitherto have stood aloof from making private diseases a specialty, and hence they have been monopolized by quacks.—The fear of losing caste in society, or of being classed among charlatans by the profession, has too long stood in the way of this most desirable result. What disgrace is there in treating a class of diseases specially that all physicians treat in general practice? Ricord of Paris, and Acton of London, both make Private Diseases a specialty, and yet their fame is an enviable as it is world-wide. It is in fact the only remedy for one of the most heinous and destructive systems of quackery in private diseases as practiced in all the larger cities throughout the country.—But to return I said let quacks and impostors alone. Their advertisements fill the newspapers and are well calculated to deceive the inexperienced, made up as they are of the most extravagant pretensions, but without a shadow of evidence of the truth of what they say. Advertising in itself is no sin, but deceptive advertisements are an abomination, and no advertising physician is entitled to any confidence whatever who does not give to the public the most undoubted guarantee both of his honesty and his skill.

In offering my services in a specialty which has heretofore been almost exclusively in the hands of impostors, I ask no man to employ me who is not fully convinced that I shall treat him courteously, deal honorably and with the strictest fidelity, and give him the best possible chance for a speedy and permanent cure. H. N. MATTISON, o11 d w tf No. 28 Union st., Prov. R. I.

Blood Food!

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years' practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over two thousand consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Coughs, Cold, Head-ache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of appetite, or pain in the side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Dibility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are Depressed or your Organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or disease in any manner whatever one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints and Weakness, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FLOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas and other like complaints, Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefited by its use. It gives strength to the body and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success. For full directions, see circulars.
Price $1 per bottle.

Mothers!

In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.

First—It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them. Second—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show; the very roots from which it is distilled being from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly it is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation, viz:

FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsion or fits, we earnestly recommend you to lose no time in procuring it. Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price 25 cents per bottle.

GREAT WONDER
OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.
PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis (Mo) Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, Maine, Jan. 29, 1859.
Prof. O. J. Wood & Co;
GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite grey, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe, more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements, I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.
WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, the Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER
BROOKFIELD, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflamation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in Bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds 1-2 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30, 1860

Resolutions were introduced in the Virginia House of Delegates today, declaring that while we recognize an imperative necessity for decisive measures in the present condition of things, yet we believe that prompt and efficient cooperation can be more safely obtained by the direct and authoritative action of the constituted authorities of the Southern States than through the agency of an assemblage which can have no legitimate power except to debate and advise. Therefore, the General Assembly of Virginia will not at this time undertake to invite any conference of Commissioners appointed by the authorities of the Southern States.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Jan. 30,—William H. Gibson, formerly treasurer of this State and recently convicted of embezzlement, has been granted a new trial.

"The only liberty cap," says a clever and witty author, "is the night cap. In it men visit, one-third of their lives, the land of sleep—the only land where they are always free and equal."

"Alas! and alack a day," is generally considered an expression of grief; a traveler in the East Indies says, however, that a lass and a lac a day "ain't bad to take."

HOWARD ASSOCIATION. PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, establish d by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

THE Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases in all their form and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their annual report upon the treatment of sexual diseases, for the year ending July 1st, 1858, expresses the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the consulting surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or self abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed envelope,) free of charge, on the receipt of two stamps for postage.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. George R. Calhoun, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting regulating, and removing all obstruction from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive.—Price $1 per box. For sale at 132 Thames street, corner Church street, and at 12 Washington Square, opposite State House. Orders for the trade so addressed will be supplied at lowest manufacturer's prices. Ladies by enclosing $1 to STURGIS & CO., Box 801, Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country.

After May 1st, 1860, at 501 BROADWAY, two doors from the St. Nicholas Hotel,

The Stereoscope is the most instructive, interesting, entertaining, amusing, and exciting of modern inventions.

None are too young, none too old, none too intelligent, none too uneducated, to acknowledge its worth and beauty.

No home is complete without it, and it must and will penetrate everywhere.

It presents to your view every part of the world, in all the relief, boldness, perspective, and sharpness of detail, as if you were on the spot.

Photographers are everywhere exploring Europe, Asia, Africa, America, in search of the grand and the beautiful, and the results of their skill are constantly enriching our stock.

We have an immense variety of paper Views of Scenes in Paris, London, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Spain, The Rhine, Versailles, St. Cloud, Fontainebleau, Tuilleries, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Athens, the Holy Land, China, India, Crystal Palace, also Groups Historical, amusing, marriage scenes, breakfast scenes, pic-nics, statuary, etc. etc. An exquisite assortment of Illuminated Interiors of Palaces, Churches, and Cathedrals of France, Italy, etc., etc. The effect of these illuminated views is most remarkable.

EVERY GENTLEMAN OF WEALTH AND REFINED TASTE should have in his drawing room some of our exquisite views on glass, with a revolving stereoscope, showing 12, 25 50 or 100 scenes. Nothing can be more fascinating, and one can offer no greater treat to a friend fond of the picturesque and the beautiful.

Anthony's Instantaneous Stereoscope Views are the latest Photographic wonder. They are taken in the fortieth part of a second, and everything, no matter how rapidly it may be moving, is depicted as sharply and distinctly as if it had been perfectly at rest. This gives an additional value, for to the beauties of inanimate nature it adds the charm of life and motion. The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris large orders for Anthony's Instantaneous Views of American life and scenery.

Among other things we have just published Stereoscopic Illustrations of the Scene of the FULTON STREET PRAYER MEETINGS, in which many hearts feel an interest. The particulars of this will be found in our catalogue.

OUR CATALOGUE of subjects and prices will be forwarded to any address on receipt of a stamp.

CAUTION.

Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of Packages of Tickets The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them—Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with Tickets at One Dollar.—$100,000 Capital Prizes are offered, Tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds, and if money is sent to them for Tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of Tickets. In every instance where large Prizes are offered for a small cost of Tickets, put it down for a certain fraud.

☞ All orders addressed to France, Broadbents & Co., Wilmington, Del., will meet with prompt attention, and the printed official drawings sent as soon as over.
